

February 5, 2018

PRESS RELEASE – WARD SCOTT ARCHITECTURE

Submitted by Stacey DeLoach at 205.345-6110 or sdeloarch@ward-scott.com

Ward Scott Architecture, a full service architectural and interior design firm located in Tuscaloosa Alabama is pleased to announce the promotion and expansion of our leadership team with Zach Ward named Principal.

Ward Scott Architecture was founded in 1983 by Jim Ward. Over the past three decades, Ward Scott Architecture has become an integral part of the West Alabama community, growing steadily in size through strategic expansion of capabilities. “A big component of our firm’s growth strategy”, says President Keith Scott, “is founded upon our collaborative working environment that promotes opportunities for growth for our staff. We are pleased to announce Zach’s promotion in celebration of our company’s continued growth and commitment to our clients and community”.

Zach joined Ward Scott Architecture in 2009. Zach received a Bachelor of Architecture with a minor in Business Administration from Auburn University in 2011. Zach is a registered architect in Alabama and Tennessee with NCARB certification.

Zach is currently a part of the Leadership Tuscaloosa Class of 2018, the Young Professionals of Tuscaloosa with the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce and American Institute of Architects. Zach’s responsibilities as Principal include leadership with project development from beginning to completion, creating and fostering client relationships, managing consultant and staff relations, as well as leading the firm’s 3-D Building Information Modeling expertise.